Dear Colleagues,

I am writing this letter on behalf of Daphne Lung. In regards to her vast efforts, abilities and enthusiasm. Daphne has tremendous potential to excel and make valid contributions both as a student and to the art world at large.

She is dedicated to pursuing a greater understanding of her environment, her abilities and her insight. Through slow, sensitive, and careful analysis of the physical world, she defines her aesthetic. This aesthetic reveals her passion for life and her love for the pursuit of a greater consciousness.

Daphne has revealed her dedication to the arts through her heavy schedule in the art program here at Kimball High School, as well as other contributions. These include: Art and Layout Editor of Xenolith, the award winning school literary arts magazine; participating in teaching art to kids in a summer program; and has attended a printmaking workshop at U of M that was funded by a scholarship.

Having Daphne for two years in my honors art program, I believe that I can honestly give testimony to both her talent and dedication. With all my support and confidence I recommend Daphne for all educational endeavors and financial support that will contribute to her goals.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Landry
Art Department Head,
